

“BarBie Q” in East Bloomfield

Guess who’s in town!!! It’s “BARBIE Q”! She has come to East Bloomfield for the 2nd Annual Historical Society’s Chicken & Beer fundraiser.

Before the big event on Saturday, September 26, starting at 11 am at the Other Half Brewery, BarBie Q wanted to visit the local businesses that are sponsoring the fundraiser.

She began her trek with Kathy at CANANDAIGUA NATIONAL BANK to get some cash to purchase a ‘Chicken & Beer’ T-shirt and Cluck Covid mask. Judy and Wendy were so helpful!

Then on to the Town Clerk’s Office to purchase a raffle ticket to win a plane ride over the surrounding area provided by DOUG TURNBULL.

With that in mind, BarBie Q stopped by the STAN STEELE INSURANCE AGENCY to meet with Flo from Progressive, Joel and Matt to check out their life insurance policies.

Her next stop, CALL JOE APPLIANCES, she asked for the Maytag Man – the loneliest man in town - but he was out on a call! Andy, Bonnie, Ray, and Mark wished her well.

from home for several hours, Barbie Q decided to check in on her dog, Stout, with a mobile app she had acquired at SG

SECURITY SYSTEMS, thanks to Kim and Bruce.

After checking on Stout she came across WHITE'S FARM MARKET where she purchased an ear of "damn good corn!"

Then on to the OTHER HALF BREWING COMPANY, her last stop of the day, for some refreshment. After several tasty beers, she said good bye to Andrea and Zack and took an Uber home to get ready for her return for Saturday's 'Chicken & Beer' event!
